Discipleship Questions

1. A peacemaker takes the responsibility to bring God-honoring healing to situations where disunity, sin, and strife have brought destruction. Are there any strained relationships in which God is calling you to act as the peacemaker? What can you do to try to bring healing to that situation today?
2. The merciful extend mercy because they have received mercy from God. Have you denied mercy to anyone? If so, what might God be calling you to do to demonstrate a pure heart transformed by God's mercy?
